Offit Kurman Welcomes Casey Donoyan to Los Angeles Office

October 10, 2025

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that Casey Donoyan has joined the firm as a principal in the bankruptcy, restructuring, and credit practice group.

Casey counsels businesses, lenders, and investors facing financial challenges with a steady, solutions-oriented approach. He advises on bankruptcy, restructuring, distressed transactions, and related litigation, with a focus on strategies that protect assets and preserve business value. His work spans a wide range of industries, including real estate, healthcare, hospitality, and energy.

Based in Los Angeles, Casey strengthens Offit Kurman's growing presence in California and expands the firm's ability to support clients navigating complex financial and restructuring matters across the region.
