

Publications & News

Press Releases

Daniel Schneider Appointed to New York City Bar Committees

August 14, 2025

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that principal attorney Daniel Schneider has been appointed as an affiliate member of both the Construction Law Committee and the Commercial Law and Uniform State Laws Committee of the New York City Bar Association for the 2025–2026 term, running from August 1, 2025, through July 31, 2026.

These appointments affirm Daniel's dedication to advancing the construction and commercial sectors of New York City's legal community.

"I'm honored to serve on these committees," Daniel said. "I look forward to contributing to the important work they do in shaping policy, fostering collaboration, and advancing the practice of law in New York City,"

Founded in 1870, the New York City Bar Association is one of the nation's oldest and most respected voluntary bar associations, with more than 23,000 members. Its mission is to equip and mobilize the legal profession to practice with excellence, promote reform of the law, and advocate for access to justice in support of a fair society. The association's committees address a wide range of legal issues, shaping policy and fostering professional development across the legal community.

Related People

- Daniel Schneider

Related Services

- Construction Law, Transactions and Disputes
- Commercial Litigation