David Cahn Named 2026 Legal Eagle by Franchise Times

April 6, 2026

Offit Kurman Principal David Cahn has been named a 2026 Legal Eagle by Franchise Times, marking his 10th year receiving the distinction. The annual Legal Eagles list recognizes attorneys nationwide for their work in franchising and distribution law, including representation in complex disputes, transactions and regulatory matters.

Legal Eagles are selected through a competitive nomination process conducted by Franchise Times. The publication evaluates candidates based on recent case work, industry impact and contributions to emerging legal and business trends affecting franchisors and franchisees. Honorees are chosen for their ability to address sophisticated legal issues across a broad range of franchising and distribution matters.
