Timonium, MD – 443.927.2122

Desirena Farmer brings 20 years of paralegal experience across contract disputes, employment matters, personal injury, regulatory issues, and construction litigation. She is highly skilled in supporting attorneys through all stages of civil, family, and employment law cases, including discovery, depositions, mediations, and trial.

Desirena drafts pleadings and correspondence, manages complex calendars and court deadlines, and handles federal, state, and appellate e-filings. She leads document review and e-discovery, prepares tables and exhibits, and serves as a liaison with clients, courts, and vendors. She also screens new client inquiries, reconciles billing, and trains junior paralegals. Her leadership includes serving as lead paralegal on major litigation matters such as large construction cases, trademark disputes, and complex breach-related claims. Desirena is also Maryland Notary Public.
