

Publications & News

Recognition

Doyle's Guide Recognizes Offit Kurman and Three Attorneys Among Top Family Law Practitioners in Washington, D.C.

February 24, 2025

Offit Kurman has been named a leading family, matrimonial and divorce law firm in Washington, D.C. for 2025 by Doyle's Guide. This recognition highlights the firm's commitment to providing top-tier legal services in family law, divorce and matrimonial matters across the Greater Washington, D.C. area.

Additionally, three Offit Kurman family law attorneys have been individually recognized for their exceptional work:

•

Joseph A. Condo, Principal – Tyson's Corner, VA

•

Erin C. Golding, Principal – Washington, D.C.

•

Cheryl L. Hepfer, Principal – Bethesda, MD

The 2025 list of top Washington, D.C. family, matrimonial, and divorce lawyers features attorneys identified by their peers for their outstanding skills and dedication in the field. Doyle's Guide is a leading directory for the best lawyers, barristers and firms, all of which are voted onto the Guide by their peers. Originating in Australia, Doyle's Guide has extended its lawyer and law firm rankings to the United States for the first time in 2025.

Offit Kurman's inclusion on this list reflects its strong reputation in the Washington, D.C. family law community. The firm continues to be a trusted advocate for individuals

Related People

- Joseph A. Condo
- Erin C. Golding
- Cheryl L. Hepfer

Related Services

- Family Law

navigating complex divorce cases, child custody disputes, alimony and other family law matters.