Elena Weitz Recognized as a New Jersey Certified Matrimonial Law Attorney

May 20, 2025

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that Elena Weitz has earned the designation of New Jersey Certified Matrimonial Law Attorney from the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

This official designation identifies attorneys who have demonstrated a high level of skill, experience, and professionalism in the area of family and matrimonial law. The certification process is rigorous and designed to ensure that attorneys meet the highest standards of legal knowledge and client service.

Elena's certification confirms her proficiency in a wide range of family law matters, including divorce, child custody, child support, alimony, mediation, alternative dispute resolution, domestic violence, division of assets and debts, post-judgment relief, and pre- and post-nuptial agreements. It also provides clients with the assurance that they are working with a legal professional whose experience has been independently verified by the state's highest court.

With nearly 20 years of experience, Elena brings a strategic approach to complex family law matters, offering compassionate guidance and effective advocacy throughout every stage of the legal process. As a seasoned trial attorney and certified mediator, she supports individuals and families through some of life's most challenging transitions with care, clarity, and precision.
