

Publications & News

Publications and Presentations

Estate Planning Missteps Uncovered: Offit Kurman Attorney Thomas W. Repczynski to Speak at Senior Services Alliance

February 5, 2025

Offit Kurman principal and shareholder Thomas W. Repczynski will be a featured speaker at the Senior Services Alliance event on February 12, 2025. Tom will present “Tom’s Tales From the Trenches – Death Planning,” sharing real-world litigation anecdotes that highlight the importance of proactive estate and financial planning.

Through compelling case studies, Tom will emphasize the critical need to review marital agreements, divorce documents, retirement account beneficiary designations, and testamentary planning documents—both for individuals and their elder loved ones. His presentation will highlight how lack of preparation can lead to significant challenges, particularly with insurance, real and personal property, investments, and the impact of declining mental and physical health.

The Senior Services Alliance is a network of business professionals dedicated to education, networking, and collaboration to better serve their clients. For more information on the event, visit Senior Services Alliance.

Related People

- Thomas W. Repczynski