

Exploring Paid Family Leave in Maryland for Employers

February 25, 2025

By Russell B. Berger, Sarah M. Sawyer and Ben Bohonowicz

Join Sarah Sawyer, Russell Berger, and guest Ben Bohonowicz as they discuss the current status and implications of Maryland's Paid Family and Medical Leave Act. Originally set for implementation in 2025, recent updates have delayed the program. Ben, the Senior Vice President, Division Director of Employee Benefits at RCM&D, provides insights on the act's impact on employers, the necessity for coordination with existing benefits, and how employers can prepare for future changes. Tune in to learn about the intricacies of paid leave programs and what employers need to know to stay compliant and competitive.
