Fernando L. Garnica focuses on bankruptcy matters, drawing on more than a decade of experience handling complex Chapter 7 cases for corporate and institutional clients. He supports attorneys with in-depth asset and financial investigations, analyzing debtor filings to identify inconsistencies and support case strategy. His work includes preparing and reviewing key bankruptcy filings, including motions and statements, to help ensure accurate and effective case progression.

Fernando also manages discovery by obtaining and evaluating financial records, such as bank statements, investment account records, and property documents, for use in hearings and court proceedings. He works closely with attorneys and other stakeholders to coordinate case development and support litigation efforts, contributing to thorough preparation and efficient resolution of bankruptcy matters.
