

Publications & News

Press Releases

Offit Kurman Continues Expansion in Atlanta Office with the Addition of Attorneys Henry Quillian III and Natalie Mark

September 15, 2025

Am Law 200 firm Offit Kurman announces today its further expansion into Atlanta, GA, with the addition of two new attorneys, Henry Quillian III, a nationally recognized litigation and construction attorney, and Natalie Mark, a seasoned commercial litigation lawyer. Their arrival broadens the firm's service offerings in the Southeast and reinforces its commitment to meeting the evolving legal needs of the region's business community.

"Offit Kurman's growth is driven by attracting attorneys who pair extensive experience with a true commitment to clients," said Tim Lynch, President of Offit Kurman. "Henry and Natalie bring the kind of practical, business-focused counsel our clients rely on, and we look forward to the impact they will have in Atlanta and beyond."

Henry brings more than three decades of experience guiding clients through high-stakes litigation and complex disputes, with a particular focus on construction law. He has served as lead trial counsel in matters across 18 states, handling a range of disputes, including contract disputes, fraud claims, insurance coverage, and intellectual property matters. In addition to his litigation practice, Henry serves as an arbitrator and mediator with Bay Mediation and Arbitration, LLC, and is a registered patent attorney, reflecting both the breadth and depth of his practice and his commitment to practical and efficient conflict resolution.

Natalie represents businesses, developers, contractors, and design professionals in complex commercial disputes, with a particular focus on the construction and manufacturing industries. She has secured multimillion-dollar verdicts, favorable outcomes in multiparty construction defect cases, and frequently advises on contracts, compliance, insurance coverage, and risk management. Known for her pragmatic, collaborative approach, Natalie also advances diversity, equity, and inclusion within the profession and remains active in community service and professional organizations.

Related People

- Henry M. Quillian III
- Natalie Nicole Mark

Related Services

- Commercial Litigation
- Construction Law, Transactions and Disputes

“We’re excited to welcome Henry and Natalie to our Atlanta office,” said Joe English, Principal and Founder of Offit Kurman’s Atlanta office. “Having been their partner for years, I know their experience and client-focused approach will further strengthen our ability to serve businesses across the region.”

About Offit Kurman

Offit Kurman is a full-service Am Law 200 firm with more than 280 attorneys providing comprehensive legal counsel across 30+ practice areas. Since its founding in 1987, the firm has served dynamic businesses, individuals, and families—helping them maximize business value and protect personal wealth through innovative, entrepreneurial legal solutions. The firm is distinguished by the quality, breadth, and global reach of its legal services and a unique operational structure that encourages a culture of collaboration. For more information, visit <https://www.offitkurman.com>.