

Georgia Gavaris

Paralegal

georgia.gavaris@offitkurman.com

New York, NY – 929.476.0057

Georgia Gavaris is a dedicated paralegal with the Estates and Trusts team in New York. With extensive experience supporting a diverse range of clients, including high-net-worth individuals, she assists with all aspects of estate planning and administration. Her responsibilities include drafting key estate planning documents such as wills, trusts, and advance directives, as well as managing essential estate administration tasks, including gathering asset information, preparing probate documents, and supporting executors and administrators throughout the process.

Georgia also plays a key role in the funding of trusts, assisting clients with asset transfers to ensure seamless execution. Skilled at managing multiple caseloads, she maintains clear communication with clients and ensures timely document filings.

Education

- American University (B.A.)

Services

- Estates and Trusts