Greg Cragg is a seasoned business attorney with over 15 years of experience delivering comprehensive legal services to public and private companies, entrepreneurs, investors, and philanthropists across a variety of industries. His capabilities span cross-border transactions, entity formation, corporate governance, securities offerings, mergers and acquisitions (M&A), and internet-related agreements and policies.

Dedicated to helping clients achieve their business objectives while safeguarding their interests, Greg ensures compliance with all relevant laws and regulations. Known for his strong leadership and meticulous document drafting skills, he provides high-quality, timely legal solutions tailored to his clients' needs. As a corporate lawyer, he provides strategic counsel to domestic and international buyers and sellers in asset and equity purchases and sales for mid-market deals in the $10M-250M range from term sheet through post-closing.

In addition to his corporate practice, Greg provides guidance on technology agreements, executive compensation, and corporate real estate transactions, including purchase and sale contracts, corporate leases, and related agreements. He has significant experience with internet-related policies, advising clients on master service agreements with app developers, terms of use, privacy policies, and data breach response strategies. His diverse clientele includes start-ups, emerging growth companies, and mature businesses in industries such as app development, chemical distribution, commercial real estate, and digital marketing.

Greg's dedication to community service and professional development sets him apart. He is actively involved in pro bono work with Public Counsel, assisting with transactional and pre-litigation matters. He has also taught trial advocacy to at-risk, inner-city high school students and served as a director for Native Canadian Ministries, supporting the First Nations People of Canada.

A lifelong learner and mentor, Greg was an active contributor to the Biola Startup Competition, offering legal services as part of the prize package. Earlier in his career, as a certified law clerk with the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office, Greg conducted 25 preliminary hearings, further honing his litigation skills.
