

Publications & News

Publications and Presentations

How Can Any Lawyer Work on Climate?: An In-Depth Conversation with Leading Lawyers and Recruiters

September 20, 2023

Related People

- Matthew Karmel

NOTE: This is a video recording of a webinar hosted on September 20, 2023.

ABOUT THE WEBINAR

There are many opportunities to work on climate as a lawyer, no matter your employer, expertise, or seniority. This webinar with climate-focused lawyers and recruiters explored how to do more work that matters. Panelists shared universal insights as well as specific tips for each sector. The webinar also provided insights on how lawyers can make every job a climate job and how to get hired by climate-conscious companies.

Panelists included:

- Matt Karmel- Principal and Chair, Environmental and Sustainability Practice, Offit Kurman, P.A.
- Christine Uri- Former Chief Sustainability & Legal Officer, ENGIE Impact
- Aidan Bassett- Law Students for Climate Accountability, Georgetown University Law Center
- Sangeet Kaur- ESG-Focused Legal Recruiter, Pro Lawyers ESG

The webinar also included:

- What employers are looking for in climate- and ESG-focused legal roles
- What planet-friendly legal roles are on the rise
- How to do more climate-conscious work no matter your position or seniority
- Whether certifications and supplemental degrees are necessary

- How to become a climate leader or increase your climate knowledge
- How emerging environmental issues are driving climate-friendly career opportunities
- Best practices and resources for addressing climate issues in your company or law firm
- And More!

Presented by the Planetary Lawyer Project and Offit Kurman, P.A.

Sponsored by Golnhouse® and Lateral Hub

SUBSCRIBE TO OUR NEWSLETTERS HERE

Join Our Community! Sign Up for Our Newsletter and Never Miss Out.

- The Planetary Lawyer Project

Click Here

- Offit Kurman Environmental & Sustainability Law Group Updates

Click Here