Howard Kurman Receives The Daily Record's Icon Honors

November 10, 2022

Offit Kurman is pleased to congratulate Labor and Employment Principal and Co-Founder Howard Kurman on receiving The Daily Record's Icon Honors. Established in 2017, Icon Honors recognizes Maryland business leaders, over the age of 60, for their notable success and demonstration of strong leadership within and outside their fields.

The honorees have moved their businesses and the state of Maryland forward by growing jobs and making a difference in the community. To be eligible for Icon Honors, honorees must have a long-standing commitment to the Maryland business community. Honorees must also have a sustained commitment to community service and mentoring. They may be in the workforce or retired and must hold or have held senior management-level positions with significant authority in decision-making for their organization. The winners were selected by the editors of The Daily Record.

The winners will be honored on Dec. 12 at The Center Club, 100 Light Street in Baltimore. The entire list of honorees can be found here.
