

Introducing The Legal Canvas: Estate Law for Creative Minds

April 17, 2026

By Caryn B. Keppler

Welcome to The Legal Canvas, the podcast where law and creativity intersect.

Hosted by Caryn Keppler, an estates and trusts attorney with extensive experience working with artists, collectors, and foundations, The Legal Canvas explores the legal frameworks that shape creative legacies. Each month, Caryn is joined by guests from across the creative industries to discuss estate planning, legacy protection, stewardship, and the unique legal challenges—and opportunities—facing creatives and cultural institutions.

Whether you're an artist, collector, advisor, or simply curious about how creative lives are preserved and protected, The Legal Canvas offers thoughtful conversations and practical insights designed to help you plan with intention and create with confidence.
