

Publications & News

Recognition

Offit Kurman's IP Group Recognized in Oppedahl's Tote Boards Rankings

February 16, 2022

Offit Kurman has been ranked in three intellectual property categories by Oppedahl.com's Ant-Like Persistence Blog, which ranks the firms according to the number of US trademark registrations and patent grants obtained each year. The seventh annual Tote board rankings, based on data submitted from 2021, ranks Offit Kurman as follows:

- 2021 U.S. Trademark Registrations: #23 (up from #31 in 2020)
- 2021 U.S. Utility Patents: #44 (up from #45 in 2020)
- 2021 U.S. Design Patents: #40 (up from #41 in 2020)

Offit Kurman's Intellectual Property (IP) Group helps dynamic businesses and individuals develop and protect their IP assets in the United States and globally. They are prepared and can help through all stages of an IP matter – from concept through development, registration, licensing, marketing, renewals, enforcement, and sales.