

Publications & News

Press Releases

Offit Kurman Welcomes Isaac Jacobson to Its Landlord Representation Practice

September 16, 2025

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that Isaac Jacobson has joined the firm's landlord representation practice in the Bethesda office.

Isaac advises landlords and property management companies on the full spectrum of landlord-tenant issues. His practice includes representing both large institutional landlords and individual property owners in matters critical to maintaining the stability of their properties and protecting long-term investments.

Isaac's background reflects a strong commitment to academic excellence and community engagement. While attending Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law in Washington, D.C., he was elected Treasurer of the Middle Eastern Law Student Association and received the Extra Mile Award for his service to the law school community.

Outside of his legal work, Isaac enjoys exploring Washington, D.C.'s neighborhoods in search of new coffee shops and playing piano.

Related People

- Isaac Jacobson

Related Services

- Landlord Representation