

Publications & News

Press Releases

Offit Kurman Welcomes Attorney Jenna Newman to the Commercial Litigation Practice

November 17, 2025

Offit Kurman is pleased to welcome Jenna Newman to the firm's Commercial Litigation practice group in the Baltimore, Maryland office.

Jenna represents businesses and individuals in complex commercial disputes, leveraging her courtroom experience and strong analytical background to deliver effective advocacy and strategic counsel. Her work spans both criminal and civil matters, giving her a multifaceted perspective on how judges and opposing counsel approach key issues.

Before joining Offit Kurman, Jenna served as an Assistant State's Attorney for Baltimore City, where she prosecuted criminal and traffic misdemeanor cases, honing her trial and evidentiary skills. She also clerked for the Honorable Charles M. Blomquist in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, gaining appellate experience through positions with the Maryland Office of the Attorney General's Criminal Appeals Division and the Appellate Court of Maryland.

Related People

- Jenna Newman

Related Services

- Commercial Litigation