

Jim Ries

Director of Client Development

jries@offitkurman.com

As Director of Client Development at Offit Kurman, Jim Ries is a driving force behind revenue growth, helping business leaders and high-net-worth families navigate their most complex challenges. With over 30 years of experience leading a family-owned business, Jim has an intimate understanding of the unique pressures business owners face.

A master networker and strategic connector, Jim excels at identifying market opportunities and forging valuable partnerships for his clients. He has access to a vast network of top-tier attorneys across every Offit Kurman practice area, ensuring his clients receive the precise legal support they need to protect their assets and resolve disputes.

Professional Affiliations

- Geneva Group International (GGI), Chairperson, Business Development & Marketing Practice Group
- Greater Maryland Better Business Bureau, Board Member
- Junior Achievement of Central Maryland, Board Member
- Maryland Tech Council
- MasterMind Professional Development & Networking
- neXco National
- The Associated: Jewish Federation of Baltimore, Board of Directors