Recognition

Karen Eng Named to Long Island Business News 40 Under Forty List

September 11, 2026

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that Long Island Business News has recognized New York estates and trusts attorney Karen Eng as a recipient of its 2026 40 Under Forty Awards.

The annual 40 Under Forty Awards program honors outstanding members of the Long Island business community who are age 40 or younger and have demonstrated notable professional achievement, leadership and service. Since 1998, Long Island Business News has recognized emerging leaders who are making a meaningful impact across industries and throughout the Long Island region.

Karen's selection reflects her commitment to client service, professional excellence, and contributions to the business and legal communities. Throughout her career, she has demonstrated leadership and dedication while helping clients navigate complex estate and trust matters. Her recognition among this year's honorees highlights both her accomplishments and her growing influence within the Long Island business community.

Karen and the other honorees will be recognized Tuesday, September 22, 2026, at the annual awards celebration at Crest Hollow Country Club. More information and the complete list of honorees can be found here: 40 Under Forty Awards - Long Island Business News

Please join us in congratulating Karen on this outstanding achievement.
