

Publications & News

Publications and Presentations

Kevin Fasic and Anthony Delcollo Discuss Changes in Delaware Employment Law for Delaware Business Magazine

June 14, 2024

Attorneys G. Kevin Fasic and Anthony Delcollo have delved into the recent changes in Delaware employment law in their latest publication featured in Delaware Business, a notable periodical of the Delaware State Chamber of Commerce, within the May/June 2024 edition.

The article underscores the significant amendments introduced by the Delaware General Assembly aimed at bolstering employee rights. These changes encompass provisions for paid family leave, escalations in minimum wage, and expanded safeguards against workplace discrimination. While these legislative updates benefit employees, they also present new challenges for small and mid-sized businesses that must navigate and comply with these changes.

For a comprehensive understanding of these developments and their implications, click here to read the full article.

Related People

- G. Kevin Fasic
- Anthony Delcollo

Related Services

- Labor and Employment