

Letecia Rollins

Principal

letecia.rollins@offitkurman.com

Timonium, MD – 410.209.6432

Letecia Rollins' practice concentrates on landlord/tenant matters representing property management companies throughout the State of Maryland. Letecia's responsibilities include defending landlords in all matters concerning breach of contract and civil and criminal real estate-related lawsuits.

She represents landlords in federal court, state court and administrative agencies in defense of claims filed under the Fair Housing Act.

Education

- Michigan State University (J.D.)
- University of Baltimore (M.A.)
- University of Maryland Eastern Shore (B.S.)

State Bar Admissions

- Maryland

Court Admissions

- Supreme Court of Maryland
- United States District Court for the District of Maryland

Professional Affiliations

- Maryland State Bar Association, Member
- Baltimore County Bar Association, Member
- Maryland Multi-Housing Association, Inc., Instructor
- Real Estate Professionals, Fair Housing Law Instructor
- Lorman Education Services-Fair Housing Training, Lecturer, 2014
- American University Washington College of Law-Civil Trial Advocacy, Adjunct Professor

Services

- Fair Housing
- Landlord Representation
- Property Management

- American University, Washington College of Law, Mock Trial Coach, 2011-Present