

Exploring Long-Term Home Care Solutions with Albert Eshoo & Joyce Barocas

October 15, 2025

By Candace Dellacona and Albert Eshoo and Joyce Barocas

In this episode of The Sandwich Generation Survival Guide, host Candace Dellacona welcomes Albert Eshoo and Joyce Barocas, owners of Right at Home in-home care in New York City. They discuss their paths into the home care industry and delve into the new Medicare GUIDE Program, designed to assist families and caregivers of those with Alzheimer's and dementia. The discussion covers the limitations of traditional Medicare coverage, the importance of activities of daily living (ADLs), and the significant benefits of the GUIDE program, including free access to care navigators and respite care. The episode provides listeners with comprehensive insights on how to effectively utilize home care services and the GUIDE program to maintain their loved ones' independence and improve the quality of life for caregivers.

To learn more about Right at Home, visit their website at <https://www.rightathome.net/lower-manhattan>

For RightConversation resources, visit <https://www.rightathome.net/lower-manhattan/resources/guides/right-conversations>

Follow Right at Home on social media:

YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/RightatHomeCare>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/RightAtHomeLowerManhattan>

Twitter: <https://x.com/rightathomeNY>