Matthew Karmel Named to NJBIZ 2026 Power List for Law

July 20, 2026

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that Matthew Karmel, principal and chair of the firm's Environmental and Sustainability Law practice, has been named to NJBIZ's 2026 Power List for Law.

The NJBIZ Power List for Law recognizes attorneys who shape, lead and influence New Jersey's legal industry. The publication's editorial team selects honorees through a process that includes prior reporting, peer nominations, and insights from trusted sources within the business community.

Karmel represents a diverse client base, ranging from Fortune 100 companies to individual property owners, across a broad range of environmental matters. His work includes brownfields redevelopment, regulatory compliance, environmental litigation, waste management, renewable energy, and climate-related business strategy.

In addition to his client work, Karmel is actively engaged in advancing environmental and sustainability initiatives within the legal profession. He is the founder of "the planetary lawyer project," a platform dedicated to promoting environmentally responsible legal practices. He also contributes regularly to industry publications, participates in panel discussions, and supports pro bono efforts focused on environmental issues.

Karmel's selection highlights both his contributions to the legal profession and his ongoing efforts to address environmental issues.
