

Maxwell “Max” Dickens

Attorney

maxwell.dickens@offitkurman.com

Philadelphia, PA – 267.338.1321

Maxwell Dickens represents clients in complex commercial disputes, leveraging experience from both plaintiff-side litigation and in-house corporate legal work. This combination gives him a well-rounded perspective on the challenges businesses face, allowing him to craft strategies that align with client objectives and minimize risk.

Max’s background includes handling matters that require balancing aggressive advocacy with practical business considerations. His time working on the plaintiff side sharpened his ability to anticipate opposing strategies, while his corporate experience taught him how legal decisions impact operations and long-term goals. This insight enables him to deliver solutions that are both legally sound and commercially sensible.

A former Division I track athlete and two-time team captain, Max brings discipline, focus, and leadership to his practice. These qualities drive his commitment to achieving favorable outcomes for clients, whether through early resolution or litigation in state and federal courts.
