

Meet Blair Brylawski

October 25, 2023

By Jim Ries and Blair Brylawski

In this episode of Java with Jim, Jim Ries sits down with Blair Brylawski, owner of Revit Auto. Blair shares insights on how Revit Auto helps companies recapture lost revenue and increase profits by optimizing their fleet systems. Learn about their unique business model, their partnership approach, and why they focus on quality over speed in vehicle servicing. Blair also reveals some personal tidbits, including his popular YouTube channel and his stint on the TV show Junkyard Empire. Don't miss this engaging discussion on enhancing fleet efficiency and more.
