Michael Joseck assists individuals, families, businesses, and high-net-worth clients in navigating the complexities of estate planning, trust administration, taxation, tax law, and wealth management and asset protection as a principal attorney in the firm's Estates and Trusts Practice Group, based in Columbia, MD.

With a strong commitment to ensuring clients' wishes are honored, he provides comprehensive support to those managing the intricacies of their estates, legacies, and financial security.

After law school, Michael gained valuable experience as a law clerk at the Delaware Department of Justice and the Newcastle County Register of Wills. He then transitioned to a trust company, where he managed high-net-worth client accounts, tailoring wealth management strategies to meet the unique needs of his clients. His background also includes consulting for an accounting services firm, where he assisted in the preparation of personal, business, and fiduciary tax returns, further strengthening his knowledge of tax law and compliance.

Michael's knowledge was further enhanced during his three years as Chief Auditor with the Register of Wills for Howard County, where he oversaw the Audit Department and Maryland's Inheritance Tax. This role deepened his understanding of estate administration and inheritance tax, enabling him to guide clients effectively through potential hurdles and ensure compliance with state regulations.

At Offit Kurman, Michael develops customized estate planning documents, including wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and living wills. He is committed to creating strategies that address both immediate needs and long-term wealth preservation for his clients and their families. Whether clients are preparing for the future or navigating the complexities of estate administration, Michael serves as a trusted advisor, ensuring their legacies are protected, and their financial security is preserved.

With a comprehensive skill set and a passion for client advocacy, Michael is committed to providing exceptional legal services in estate planning, tax law, wealth management, and trust administration, helping clients achieve peace of mind and protect their assets for future generations.
