Natalie N. Diratsouian is a principal attorney in the firm's Family Law Practice Group in both the New York and New Jersey offices. Natalie prioritizes her clients' needs and goals, while taking a practical approach at every step. She has extensive experience in both drafting and negotiating agreements and litigating a range of complex and high-conflict matters, including pre-judgment and post-judgment issues relating to custody, parenting time, child support, spousal support, equitable distribution and relocation issues.

Prior to joining the firm, Natalie was associated with a preeminent boutique matrimonial law firm in Manhattan, and previously, a law firm in Bergen County, New Jersey, where she worked exclusively with the chair of the Matrimonial Department. Before entering private practice, she served as the Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Peter J. Melchionne, P.J.F.P. (Ret.), the Presiding Judge of the Family Part of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Bergen County.

During law school, Natalie served as Notes and Comments Editor of the New York Law School Law Review and an affiliate of the Diane Abbey Law Center for Children and Families. She was a General Counsel Summer Associate at Credit Suisse Securities, L.L.C., and a judicial extern for the Honorable Donald R. Venezia, J.S.C. (Ret.) of the Family Part in Bergen County, New Jersey.
