Offit Kurman Adds Four Attorneys to Support Continued Growth

July 6, 2026

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce the addition of four new attorneys: Debra Anisman, Angelo Gasparri, Michael Heyden, and Anthony Jackson. These hires strengthen the firm's capabilities in commercial litigation, business law and transactions, and estates and trusts across key markets and continue the firm's commitment to strategic growth.

Debra R. Anisman, Principal, Estates and Trusts, New York, NY

Debra R. Anisman advises high-net-worth individuals and families on wealth preservation, estate planning, and multi-generational asset transfer. With more than four decades of experience, she counsels business owners, investment principals, and real estate families on complex planning strategies, tax considerations, and trust and estate administration. She provides comprehensive guidance across planning and administration, helping clients navigate evolving legal frameworks and make informed decisions about their assets.

Angelo A. Gasparri, Principal, Business Law and Transactions, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Angelo A. Gasparri advises middle-market companies, investors, and management teams on corporate matters and complex transactions. Angelo has over three decades of experience as an attorney, corporate executive, and consultant. He counsels clients on mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, and strategic growth initiatives. Angelo provides practical, business-focused guidance across the full transaction lifecycle, helping clients manage risk and enhance long-term value.

Michael "Mike" Heyden, Principal, Commercial Litigation, Wilmington, DE

Michael "Mike" C. Heyden represents companies, executives, and boards in high-stakes corporate and business disputes. He focuses on matters involving corporate governance, fiduciary duties, and complex commercial litigation, and regularly appears in Delaware
