Offit Kurman Announces Addition of Four Attorneys

September 8, 2026

As Offit Kurman continues to expand its presence and services, the firm is pleased to announce the addition of four attorneys: Tara Bush, Lilah Cook, Daria Nikitina and Michael Pipkin. These strategic hires deepen the firm's bench in family law, commercial litigation, and bankruptcy, and reflect Offit Kurman's ongoing commitment to growth, collaboration, and client service.

Tara Bush – Attorney, Bankruptcy, Dallas, TX

Tara Bush counsels businesses, creditors, lenders, and trustees in restructuring and insolvency matters. Combining legal experience with a business-owner perspective, she helps clients navigate complex bankruptcy proceedings and related disputes while developing practical, business-focused solutions.

Lilah Cook – Attorney, Commercial Litigation, Los Angeles, CA

Lilah Cook represents businesses, contractors, designers, and individuals in complex civil disputes across California. Her practice spans business, construction, real estate, and products liability litigation, with a focus on delivering strategic, results-oriented counsel tailored to each client's goals; she has also handled high-profile matters involving athletes, public figures, and other clients facing significant public scrutiny.

Daria "Dasha" Nikitina – Attorney, Family Law, Bethesda, MD

Daria "Dasha" Nikitina represents clients in complex family law matters, including high-conflict custody disputes, marital property issues, and non-traditional custody cases involving grandparents and stepparent rights. She provides compassionate, solutions-oriented counsel to individuals and families facing some of life's most difficult legal challenges.

Michael Pipkin – Attorney Bankruptcy, Dallas, TX
