Offit Kurman Adds Three New Attorneys to Firm

February 3, 2026

Offit Kurman continues its strategic growth with the addition of three new attorneys—Paul J. Laurin, Jermaine Watson, and Kassidy Redpath—enhancing the firm’s bankruptcy and landlord representation practices and expanding its depth across key markets.

Paul J. Laurin, Principal, Bankruptcy, Restructuring and Credit, Los Angeles, CA.

Paul advises on creditors’ rights, bankruptcy matters, and commercial litigation, guiding clients through financially distressed situations and complex disputes.

He represents businesses, lenders, and individuals nationwide in matters involving insolvency, loan enforcement, and significant transactions. Paul advises clients throughout the distress cycle, including Chapter 11 proceedings and restructurings. He is known for steady judgment and clear, strategic guidance in high-pressure matters.

Jermain Watson, Principal, Bankruptcy, Restructuring and Credit, Commercial Litigation, Dallas, TX

Jermaine guides businesses, lenders, and entrepreneurs through financial distress and restructuring matters. He represents debtors, creditors, committees, landlords, and trustees in Chapter 11 and Chapter 7 proceedings across Texas and nationwide. Jermaine also handles distressed transactions and reorganization matters across industries, including healthcare, energy, ecommerce, and construction. He previously clerked for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri and was selected to the 2025 Texas Super Lawyers list for Business Bankruptcy.

Kassidy Redpath, Attorney, Landlord Representation, Bethesda, MD

Kassidy advises residential and commercial property owners and management companies on issues tied to maintaining and protecting real estate investments. She supports landlords with operational needs, regulatory compliance, rent collection matters, and key leasing documents. Previously, she served as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Prince George’s County Circuit Court and gained additional housing rights experience in New York City.
