Offit Kurman Advises Finer Days Healthcare on Strategic Acquisition Expanding Home Healthcare Footprint

May 13, 2026

TYSONS CORNER, VA — May 11, 2026 — Offit Kurman successfully represented Finer Days Healthcare, LLC in its recent acquisition of Nathaniel House, Inc, which specializes in providing care and support of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. The transaction was completed under the guidance of Offit Kurman attorneys Michael N. Mercurio and Paige Vankooten.

This is the third transaction completed by Offit Kurman for Finer Days, as it strengthens its presence in the home health care market, and the company continues to expand its portfolio of health service providers.

"It was a pleasure working with Mike Mercurio and Paige Vankooten on this transaction," said Finer Days Principal Hery DeRolf. "The completion of the acquisition enables Finer Days to expand operations into Kentucky, adding a new market and service offering. Mike and Paige maintained a consistent and focused approach throughout the process, which helped the transaction proceed efficiently to closing. We appreciate their professionalism and look forward to working with Offit Kurman again in the future."

Based in Lexington, Kentucky, Finer Days Healthcare is a national portfolio company that focuses on business operations, consolidation, financial optimization, and acquisitions in the home healthcare industry. Finer Days' strategic growth has been supported by trusted advisors such as Offit Kurman, whose business law professionals provided guidance on complex healthcare-sector transactions.
