Offit Kurman Attorney Matt Karmel to Lead Event on Legal Careers in Climate & Clean Energy

December 16, 2024

Offit Kurman Matthew Karmel, principal attorney and environmental and sustainability law practice group leader, will speak at the event “Building a Sustainable Future: Legal Careers in Climate & Clean Energy.”

The event, hosted in collaboration with Leonard Adler, CEO of Green Jobs Network, will focus on how legal professionals can contribute to the growing fields of sustainability and clean energy. Matthew, an advocate for environmental law and founder of the planetary lawyer project, will share insights on career opportunities within these dynamic sectors, with a special focus on attorneys looking to make an impactful shift in their practice.

The presentation will cover:

- Career pathways for lawyers in sustainability and clean energy law
- Stories of attorneys who have successfully transitioned into these fields
- Job search strategies, tips, and resources for new and experienced attorneys

Attorneys at all stages of their careers are encouraged to attend, as the event offers valuable guidance for those seeking to leverage their legal skills to contribute to environmental sustainability.

This presentation is a unique opportunity for legal professionals to explore how their careers can support the vital work of addressing climate change and promoting sustainable energy solutions.
