Offit Kurman Attorney Megan A. Moghtaderi to Speak at Professional Fiduciary Association of California Educational Conference

February 17, 2025

Offit Kurman estates and trusts attorney Megan A. Moghtaderi will speak at the Professional Fiduciary Association of California (PFAC) Educational Conference on May 10, 2025. She is joining the panel discussion "Ethical Minefields: Navigating the Complexities of Elder Abuse, Conservatorships, and High Conflict Families as a Fiduciary."

This session will take a deep look at the challenges fiduciaries face when dealing with elder abuse cases, covering legal, psychological, and practical aspects of handling family conflicts and abuse allegations. Attendees will walk away with practical strategies for protecting both themselves and the elders they serve, while staying compliant with legal and ethical standards. This session also qualifies for two CEU/MCLE ethics credits.

The PFAC Educational Conference is recognized as the most comprehensive fiduciary education program in California, offering over 15 units of fiduciary education. The event features expert-led sessions covering trusts, estates, ethics, practice management, and person-related topics, catering to both new and experienced fiduciaries.

Megan is a Certified Specialist in Trusts, Estates, & Probates by the State Bar of California who works with high-net-worth individuals, entrepreneurs, corporate institutions, professional athletes, and entertainers, helping them plan for the future while reducing litigation risks. Her practice also includes probate and trust litigation, fiduciary representation, and estate planning.
