

Publications & News

Press Releases

Offit Kurman Attorney Susan Wyckoff Named to Maryland Daily Record Family Law Power List for 2024

October 11, 2024

Offit Kurman attorney Susan Wyckoff has been named to The Maryland Daily Record's 2024 Family Law Power List. Chosen by the editorial team with input from the legal community, the selected attorneys are celebrated for their leadership, knowledge, and positive impact made within the family law field. In addition to honoring their professional accomplishments, the list gives a peek into what drives these attorneys and their thoughts on the legal profession.

Susan joined Offit Kurman's Bethesda office as a principal attorney in 2023. With over twenty years of legal experience, she has earned a trusted reputation for her compassionate yet strategic approach to family law.

"A successful family law practitioner blends compassion with clear communication to guide clients through difficult times," Susan shared in her Power List feature. "Patience, resilience, and attention to detail are essential for helping clients achieve the best outcomes."

To learn more about Susan and her practice, view her complete Power List feature here.

Related People

- Susan Wyckoff

Related Services

- Family Law