Offit Kurman Attorneys Cheryl Hepfer and Catherine “Kate” McQueen Selected as 2025 Lawdragon 500 Leading Family Lawyers Honorees

November 8, 2024

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that attorneys Cheryl Hepfer and Catherine “Kate” McQueen have been named among the 2025 Lawdragon 500 Leading Family Lawyers, an honor that reflects their dedication to helping clients navigate complex family law matters.

Cheryl Hepfer was recognized for her work in Family Law and Domestic Litigation. A veteran in the field with over 40 years of experience, Cheryl has established herself as a trusted advocate in cases involving substantial assets, property distribution, alimony, and child custody. Known for her approach to resolving cases through negotiation whenever possible, Cheryl has guided countless clients to amicable settlements. Her significant involvement in professional legal organizations, including her past presidencies at the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers and the International Academy of Family Lawyers, underscores her contributions to family law. She is also certified as a Family Law Arbitrator by the AAML.

Kate McQueen earned her recognition in Family Law & Litigation and Child Custody. Kate is well-versed in handling sensitive matters such as custody, child support, guardianship, and complex financial and property issues. Licensed in Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia, she brings a comprehensive and compassionate approach to her practice. She frequently collaborates with mental health and financial professionals to provide holistic support to clients. With over 20 years of experience, Kate focuses on resolving family disputes through innovative solutions that prioritize the well-being of her clients and their families.

The Lawdragon 500 Leading Family Lawyers honors top practitioners in family law who handle “private client” or “high-net-worth” divorces, high-stakes custody disputes, collaborative and LGBTQ+ family matters, and estate planning. The selection process is based on nominations, independent journalistic research, and peer reviews. Lawdragon, a women-owned company, produces leading legal industry guides and has been highlighting
