Offit Kurman Bolsters Its Estates and Trusts Practice Group with the Addition of Caryn Keppler

June 10, 2024

New York – (June 10, 2024) – Offit Kurman is pleased to welcome principal attorney Caryn Keppler to its New York office in the firm's Estates and Trusts Practice Group. Keppler has extensive experience in all aspects of estate, gift, and charitable planning for foreign and domestic individuals, artists and collectors, conventional and alternative families, as well as business and continuity planning. Her areas of focus encompass representing individuals regarding prenuptial, post-nuptial, and domestic partnership agreements and assisting families in planning for their disabled children.

Keppler's experience extends beyond individual clients. She represents artists' foundations acting on behalf of both fiduciaries and beneficiaries, in the administration of domestic estates and trusts, as well as estates and trusts with contacts to international jurisdictions and litigation in the Surrogate's Courts.
