

Publications & News

Press Releases

Offit Kurman Continues Strategic Los Angeles Growth, Adding Robin Gilden and Deborah Greaves as Principals

September 7, 2023

LOS ANGELES, CA – (Sep. 7, 2023) – Offit Kurman welcomes the additions of Robin C. Gilden and Deborah Greaves, who join the firm’s Los Angeles office as principals. Gilden is a tax lawyer that represents clients in corporate business law and transactions, and Greaves is an intellectual property lawyer that represents many clients in the fashion and the arts.

“We are thrilled to add two veteran lawyers like Robin and Deborah to our team. Robin has exceptional depth in tax law practice, and Deborah has vast experience, including time in-house, managing IP portfolios for some of California’s most notable fashion brands. Robin and Deborah’s exceptional expertise will be a real advantage to our clients” said Tim Lynch, President of Offit Kurman.

With many years of experience in tax law, Robin Gilden advises clients regarding partnership, corporate, individual income and estate tax planning issues, executive compensation issues, including the rules applicable to non-qualified deferred compensation.

Deborah Greaves’ practice focuses on providing clients with domestic and global intellectual property, privacy and protection strategy in the fashion, food, consumer products, retail and technology sectors, along with corporate, commercial and employment-related legal services. Counseling companies in developing and monetizing IP and brand enforcement strategies, she has experience negotiating licensing and distribution agreements, domain registration strategies and defending against counterfeiting or infringement that could damage or dilute a brand.

Related People

- Robin Gilden
- Deborah Greaves