Offit Kurman Department Chair Sarah Sawyer Named to the President's Advisory Council at Stevenson University

March 7, 2025

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that principal and department chair Sarah Sawyer has been appointed to the President's Advisory Council at Stevenson University.

A 2011 graduate of Stevenson University, Sarah has remained an active supporter of her alma mater, previously serving as a board member on the Legal Studies Advisory Board. In her new role on the President's Advisory Council, she will contribute her legal experience and leadership to help guide the university's strategic initiatives.
