Offit Kurman Announces New Deputy Managing Principal and Department Chair

March 20, 2025

Offit Kurman is excited to announce the promotion of Douglas Kay to the deputy managing principal. In this capacity, he will support the Office of Managing Principal in key initiatives while continuing to play a significant role within the Recruiting & Growth Division.

Additionally, Tiffany Halimi has been appointed as department chair, stepping into the role Doug previously held. Previously, Tiffany served as Practice Group Leader – Estates and Trusts (West). As department chair, Tiffany will be leading the family law, estates and trusts and landlord representation practice groups which span the East Coast and Southern California.

"Doug Kay and Tiffany Halimi have demonstrated exceptional leadership, and these new roles will allow them to further support the firm's strategic initiatives. Their contributions will be instrumental in fostering collaboration, growth, and continued success," said Offit Kurman President Tim Lynch.

Offit Kurman, with a nationwide footprint across nine states and the District of Columbia, offers tailored legal solutions to address the needs of both businesses and individuals. Backed by over three decades of experience, the firm has consistently delivered comprehensive representation to corporations, privately-held businesses, and high-net-worth families and individuals, providing tailored guidance and support throughout their personal and professional journeys.
