

Publications & News

Press Releases

Offit Kurman Enhances Real Estate and Transactions Practice with Addition of Brad Jacobs

September 1, 2023

BETHESDA, MD – (September 1, 2023) – Offit Kurman is pleased to welcome Principal Brad Jacobs to the firm's Real Estate and Transactions practice group.

Brad M. Jacobs is a resident in the firm's New York office. He handles numerous residential and commercial real estate transactions, including lending and financing. Brad is well-versed in 1031 exchanges commercial leasing and serves as counsel for unsold shares. He also manages estate sales and provides tax and estate planning advice related to acquisitions and sales.

Brad is a frequent lecturer on real estate topics, certified for broker education and a sought-after speaker at title insurance companies and real estate firms. He's a faculty member at the New York Institute for Continuing Education where he lectures on real estate and trust and estate matters. He actively participates in webinars discussing New York City real estate at the George Washington University Center for Real Estate and Urban Analysis.

He earned his B.A. from George Washington University and his J.D. from Brooklyn Law School.

Related People

- Brad Jacobs

Related Services

- Real Estate Law and Transactions