

Publications & News

Press Releases

Offit Kurman Expands Business Law Practice with Addition of Attorney Greg Cragg

December 6, 2024

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that Greg Cragg has joined the firm in our Los Angeles, CA, office as part of its business law and transactions practice. Greg brings over ten years of experience serving public and private companies, entrepreneurs, and investors across diverse industries.

Greg's practice focuses on corporate transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, securities offerings, and corporate governance, with extensive experience in mid-market deals ranging from $10 million to $250 million. He also advises on technology agreements, executive compensation, corporate real estate, and internet-related policies such as privacy and data breach strategies.

A trusted advisor to start-ups, emerging growth companies, and established businesses, Greg is known for his strategic counsel, leadership, and tailored legal solutions. Beyond his practice, he is actively involved in pro bono work and community service, supporting causes that foster education and entrepreneurship.

Related People

- Greg Cragg

Related Services

- Business Law and Transactions