Offit Kurman Family Law Attorney Summer Abel Speaks on Adoption Processes for Maryland and DC Families

January 28, 2025

On Sunday, January 26, 2025, family law attorney Summer spoke on a virtual seminar focused on the second parent and step-parent adoption processes in Maryland and the District of Columbia.

During the event, Summer shared valuable information, including an overview of court forms, statutory requirements, and other resources to help participants navigate these legal processes.

This seminar was presented in collaboration with Rainbow Families, an organization that has provided education, resources, and support services to LGBTQ+ parents and families since the 1970s.
