

Publications & News

Press Releases

Offit Kurman Grows Tysons Corner Office with the Addition of New Attorneys

April 19, 2022

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that Kyle Bartol has joined the firm's Northern Virginia office. Mr. Bartol joins as Principal.

Kyle Bartol has joined the firm's Family Law practice. Mr. Bartol handles a full range of family law-related matters, including high net worth property distribution cases. He is experienced in circuit court and juvenile family law court matters, representing clients in Virginia courts on matters involving property division, business valuations, spousal support, child support, support modification, divorce, custody, settlement agreements, premarital agreements, post-marital agreements, mediation and appeals. At both the appellate and trial level, he participates in all facets of contested family law matters.

Mr. Bartol received his B.A. from James Madison University and his J.D. from George Mason University – Antonin Scalia Law School.

Related People

- Kyle Bartol