Offit Kurman Named to the Baltimore Business Journal's Fast 50 List

November 17, 2021

Offit Kurman has been named to the Baltimore Business Journal's Fast 50 List for 2021, ranked as number 36 out of 50 companies recognized. The Fast 50 is an annual listing of locally-headquartered private companies ranked by average revenue growth. This year, the companies are ranked by highest average percent change in revenue throughout the three-year span from 2018 to 2020. To be eligible for the recognition, companies needed to have reached revenues of at least $100,000 in 2018 and $1 million in 2020, and achieve record consecutive growth each year.

The BBJ unveiled the rankings at their annual Fast 50 event on Thursday, Nov. 4, where Offit Kurman was in attendance. The List appeared as part of a special section in the publication's Nov. 5 edition and is available online for subscribers.
