Offit Kurman Names Two New Practice Group Chairs

May 31, 2022

May 31, 2022. Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that the following attorneys have assumed the role of practice group chair. Rawan Hmoud has been named the Chair of Family Law North, a new position at the firm that is reflective of the practice's significant growth in the northern region. Anthony "Tony" Potter has been named the new Chair of the Construction practice.

Rawan Hmoud, Chair - Family Law North

Ms. Hmoud focuses her practice exclusively on complex matrimonial law matters, representing clients throughout New Jersey and New York. As a skilled and experienced family law attorney, she is a zealous advocate for her clients and prides herself in providing compassionate and individually-focused representation. She has come to be a trusted advisor to all of her clients for all aspects of their lives before marriage, during their marriage and in the dissolution of their marriage.

Anthony "Tony" Potter, Chair - Construction

Mr. Potter focuses his practice on counseling architects, engineers, design-build entities, owners and other businesses involved in construction contracting, commercial and construction litigation, administrative law and professional licensing matters. He also represents clients in mediation and arbitration proceedings before the American Arbitration Association and other administrative agencies.
