December 13, 2024

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that it represented Ceremony Coffee Roasters in its recent sale to FairWave Specialty Coffee Collective. Attorney Raymond Agran led the effort on behalf of Ceremony Coffee Roasters, supported by a skilled team that included Robin Gilden, Matt Karmel, Jim Landon, Scott Tippet, Stephenie Yeung, and paralegal Kathy Landicho. Their collaboration spanned multiple practice areas, including real estate, tax, intellectual property, and benefits, ensuring a seamless transaction.

Founded by Vincent Latesta in 2002, Ceremony Coffee Roasters has become a staple in the Maryland coffee scene, with locations in Baltimore, Annapolis, and Bethesda. This transaction marks a significant milestone, as Ceremony Coffee Roasters is the first Maryland-based coffee company to join the FairWave Specialty Coffee Collective. The collective comprises nine other locally-based coffee and tea brands across the United States, forming a unique partnership focused on fostering specialty coffee culture.
