

Publications & News

Press Releases

Offit Kurman Welcomes Isabel Conrath as Estate Planning Attorney in Los Angeles

November 26, 2024

Offit Kurman welcomes attorney Isabel Conrath to its estates and trusts practice in Los Angeles, CA. She focuses her practice on comprehensive estate planning, offering personalized solutions to help clients manage, preserve, and transfer their wealth.

Isabel works closely with individuals and families to secure their assets, protect loved ones, and meet their long-term estate planning goals. Her practice includes drafting wills, trusts, and powers of attorney, as well as guiding clients through probate and trust administration. Isabel works closely with high-net-worth individuals, business owners, and families to ensure their multi-generational wealth transfer goals are met.

Before joining Offit Kurman, Isabel earned her Juris Doctorate from Pepperdine University, where she gained hands-on experience through various internships and externships. Her empathetic approach, strong communication skills, and ability to tailor solutions to each client's needs make her a valued addition to the firm's estates and trusts team.

Related People

- Isabel Conrath

Related Services

- Estates and Trusts