Offit Kurman Welcomes Two New Associates to Support Firm Growth

March 16, 2023

Offit Kurman is pleased to announce that three associates have joined the firm in the areas of Commercial Litigation and Estates and Trusts.

Caroline Callahan has joined the firm's Commercial Litigation practice in its Tysons Corner, Virginia office. She focuses her practice on civil litigation cases, including premise or product liability and contract dispute matters.

Ms. Callahan litigates cases from pre-suit investigations through post-judgment motions. She also goes through the mediation process with her clients to either resolve the case or narrow the issues.

Ms. Callahan received her B.A., cum laude, from Tufts University and her J.D., magna cum laude, from Indiana University Maurer School of Law.

John "Jack" Sweeney has joined the firm's Estates and Trusts practice in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania office. Mr. Sweeney works with individuals, families, businesses, special needs families, incapacitated individuals, fiduciaries and administrators on all facets of estate planning and estate administration. His practice includes gifting strategies, advanced trusts, business representation, civil litigation, corporate law and business formation and elder law issues.

Mr. Sweeney received his B.A. from Temple University and his J.D. from Widener University School of Law.
