Offit Kurman Welcomes Two Attorneys to its Growing Commercial Litigation Practice Group

July 13, 2023

BETHESDA, (July 13, 2023) –Offit Kurman is pleased to announce the addition of two attorneys to its Commercial Litigation practice group. Dani Schwartz and Austin Hinel have joined the firm's ranks.

Dani Schwartz joins Offit Kurman's New York, New York office as Principal, focusing on real estate, business and blockchain/crypto disputes. Known for crafting creative strategies, he excels at turning complex business disputes into clear, compelling stories to achieve client objectives. Dani handles a wide range of real estate disputes, including landlord/tenant matters, mortgage foreclosure, and breach of contract. He is also a commercial arbitrator and frequently speaks at events and publishes on a wide array of legal topics.

Schwartz earned his B.A. from Cornell University and his J.D. from The George Washington School of Law.

Austin Hinel joins Offit Kurman as an Associate in the Tysons Corner, Virginia office, concentrating in trust and estate litigation. He represents clients on both plaintiff and defendant sides, with experience in all stages of litigation and mediation. With firsthand knowledge of estate administration and litigation, he provides effective counsel and guidance to clients, navigating various legal issues. He serves a wide range of clients, including local, regional, and international entities.

Hinel received his B.S.B.A. from Elon University, Martha and Spencer Love School of Business, and his J.D. from George Mason University, Antonin Scalia School of Law.
